I am pleased to announce that this month Archives Journal Club is being launched as an electronic publication on the World Wide Web. This electronic version will appear in addition to the printed edition, so that readers may choose the format they prefer. Also this month, all publications of the American Medical Association, including JAMA and the nine primary-source Archives specialty journals, will introduce their own Home Page. Each journal's Home Page will feature the table of contents of the latest issue, abstracts, full text of editorials and other selected features, and physician recruitment advertising. The address of the AMA Web site is <http://www.ama-assn.org>

Reaction to the new Archives Journal Club has been very positive. We'd like to know what you think so that we can continue to make the Journal Club more useful to our readers.
